Compete Camp is organized and run by Brady Olson. A current member of the UW-Platteville men's basketball team, and former all-state point guard for Cuba City. Brady started training kids five years ago and began to run camps two summers ago. His goal is to spark a passion for the game in each player who walks into the gym, as well as give them insight on how to become the best basketball player and competitor they can be.

Each player will get a T-Shirt!

Age Groups and Times- There will be three sessions of boys and three sessions of girls throughout the day. Grades are based on your child's September 2023 grade level.
